Sermon Notes

- 1) Of the places we have covered during our missions month so far and beyond, in what areas of the world, either locally or abroad, do you feel that God has placed a burden within you towards? Can you explain why based on the experiences God has placed in your life?

- 2) For some, adding new things into one's life or routine is an easy thing, while for others, integrating a new focus or perspective onto already existing routines or actions is a better way of incorporating changes into your life. How would you add a greater missions-mindedness into each new day ahead – to be reminded to see the world as God sees the world, to take that path that Jesus would walk?
