Sermon Notes

1) Sharing our _____.

Our faith is not to be stagnant but growing, and an intimate relationship with the Holy Spirit results in a harvest of Godly character traits that are not meant to be kept to ourselves. In what ways are you cultivating these traits, and where have you learned how to “pick good fruit”?

2) Sharing our _____.

You can see the theme we’ve been developing throughout our time together that we are not meant to experience eternal things and God’s wonders alone. (Genesis 2:18) We are designed to live out our identity through the unique abilities that Jesus Christ has won for us. Continue to think about how God has made you. Use the picture below to diagram how you look like from God’s perspective:
